

TIMES PICTURE PAGE OF LIVE VIEWS AND NEWS

SHOCKED AND BEreaved, Percy Grainger, pianist and composer, is hurrying across the continent to attend the funeral of his mother, who either fell off or jumped from an eighteenth-story window.

THE MAN OF THE HOUR in China, Gen. Wu Pei-fu, who has been busy for the past few days leading rebels toward Peking, is reported to have been killed in action.

"HOLD YOUR TONGUE" is what they tell scolding women in China, and if they do not heed the adjuration, they are given wooden collars such as are sported by these three chin calisthenics experts.

EUROPE'S MOST BEAUTIFUL PRINCESS.
Daisy of Pless, has just separated from her husband.
(maybe he hasn't got good eyesight), and she is virtually a prisoner in Germany.

A BALCONY SCENE at the Paris home of Mrs. Roberta Acuff, one time sister-in-law of Peggy Joyce. The gentleman registering pleasure here is none other than Reginald Gouraud, a French aviator.

TO STUDY FLOOD CONDITIONS and try to devise means of flood prevention, a Congressional party left Washington yesterday. The solons are, left to right, front row, Congressmen Garner, of Texas, Brooks, of Illinois, Underhill, of Massachusetts; back row, Barbour, of California, Martin, of Louisiana, Crampton, of Michigan, and Humphrey, of Mississippi.

"COLLETE," DIRECT
FROM PARIS, will be one of the attractions of "Mlle.
Modiste," Victor Herbert's comic opera to be given at the Belasco Theater next week by The Washingtonians.

SWEET SINGER SAILS to Europe to recover from a serious illness which threatened his life. With John Mc-Cormack, the Irish tenor, are Mrs. McCormack, their daughter Gwen and their son Cyril.

VETERANS LOOK TO HIM for vocational training now, because Dr. John C. Wright, of Indiana, who served three years as chief of the trade and industrial educational service of the Federal Board for Vocational Education, is now at the head of the whole works.

SHE PAINTS A LOT, but she prefers to put it on the house rather than her face, especially during Clean Up Week in her home town.
Kitty Kelly set an example for all her neighbors.

EDUCATION GIVES COURAGE, according to Miss Sallie Kline, of New York, and a Smith College graduate, who discovered a big, black burglar in her home at 3 a. m., and argued him out of robbing the residence.

TWO KNUCKLE DUSTERS met in Southampton and smiled when Jack Dempsey, king of all the bone crushers, mitted Ted Lewis, who can "take" anybody in the middleweight class in bloody England. Lewis will box Carpentier in London soon.

OVER THE BARS, Miss Norma Murphy, a daring Washington horsewoman, is riding on "Reds" these days in preparation for the National Capital Horse Show.

AN HEIR PRESUMP-TIVE to the vast estates of the childless Duke of Sutherland, this little baby girl, held in the arms of Lady Alastair Leveson Goker, her mother, receives all the care in the world.

"ISN'T HE CUTE?" That is what all the girls say when they see the Prince of Wales, who is here shown making a tour of inspection at the Imperial University in Tokyo, accompanied by Prince Fushimi.